What is Trippin?

Trippin is a social enterprise that provides travelers a one stop solution to access authentic local experiences with community hosts willing to share the natural paradises of their land. Trippin conserves Nepal's cultural and natural heritage by helping its protectors generate a sustainable income through regenerative tourism.

Trippin provides accommodations, homestays with local home cooked foods and for traveling, local guides. Taking through the lifestyles of local people Trippin provides an immersive view into the real Nepali culture. Trippin experience would include all kinds of amenities like travel, guides, accommodation, food and safety.

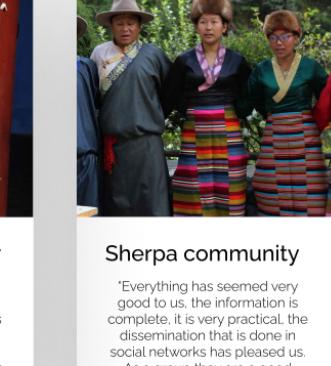

For independent travelers, Trippin would provide an online platform where they can easily only book the things they need, for example, only accommodation (homestays), only guides, only transportation. For individual hosts, Trippin would also allow you to list your own home as a place to host tourists and allows local guides to share their services through us.

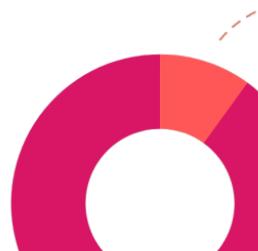

Experience

Traveling with Trippin lets you to know places and connect with people, it allows you to discover Nepal and its culture through the eyes of its people. We believe a trip is all about the experience and feel rather than just sightseeing. Trippin offers the possibility to experience unique tourist attractions and explore amazing destinations immersed in the natural paradises of the country in journeys out of the ordinary. In addition to enjoying an authentic and transformative experience, when you travel with us you contribute to transform tourism into a fair and sustainable activity.

Our great mission is to regenerate nature and culture through socially inclusive and economically just tourism. Additionally, our focus includes the betterment of the local communities and empowerment of local people.

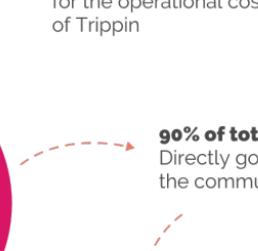

Stories of Trippin Hosts

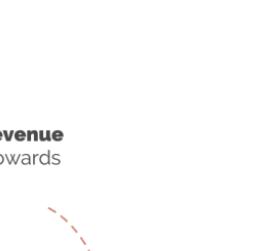

Tharu Community

"For us it has been very important to be able to receive visitors because thanks to them, sources of employment are generated and the development of the tourist attractions is detonated. It is also a great opportunity for people to live together, to share and to learn about other visions."

Bardiya Community

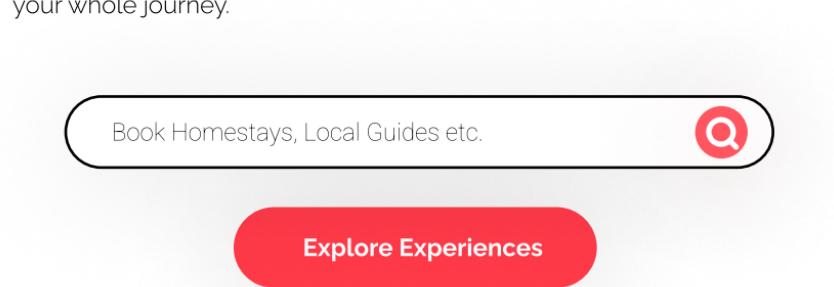

"Thanks to Trippin, lot more tourists know about us and are visiting frequently. It has made us easier to make a sustainable income through hosting the tourists. Additionally, their help in empowering the community makes us really ecstatic."

Sherpa community

"Everything has seemed very good to us, the information is complete, it is very practical, the dissemination that is done in social networks has pleased us. As a group they are a good alliance to work with."
